21ST ANNUAL CANDLELIGHT WINTER SOLSTICE
Celebrate with family, clan and loved ones as we gather for the 21st Annual Candlelight Winter Solstice. In this celebration we welcome the season of the returning Light, the rebirth of the Sun God and the reason for the season of enlightenment! This service has been a part of the Winter Season services for 21 years and is a vital part of our community outreach. Each year more than 120 people are in attendance; approximately 80% each year are not (yet) members of our UU Churches.

Please join us for this evening of music, song, the “Santa Play,” warm spirits, and tasty treats. We are, once again, thrilled to welcome guest musicians and talent to enhance our Solstice experience. After the service we will burn the Yule Log, and gather at the hearth fire in the McKeeman Room for warmth and wassail.

Donations of the sweet and savory in pastries, or appetizers; easy, pick-up foods are very welcomed. Childcare will be available. Please contact Rebekah Benner at 330-780-7476 or rebekahbenner@hotmail.com to volunteer your help, or if you have questions.
Minister's Musings...

Rev. Tim Temerson

I don’t know exactly what it is about the holiday season that leads me to yearn for quiet and reflection. Maybe it’s the long lines, the traffic, and the commercialization of a time of year that is supposed to be about love, hope, and peace. Whatever the reason, during the holidays I invariably find myself drawn to meditative words that help me slow down, breathe, and reflect on what matters most in my life rather than always getting caught up in the rush for more.

This fall I taught a class about the great mystic and spiritual teacher, Howard Thurman. Here are some words from a meditation of Dr. Thurman’s called “A Season of Affirmation” that always remind me of the true meaning of the holiday season and that speak to what stirs in my heart this time of year.

I affirm my faith in the little graces of life
I affirm my confidence in the dignity of all humankind
I affirm my joy in the experience of living
I affirm my need for others
I affirm my hunger for fulfillment, understanding, and peace

Friends, as you experience the rush and busyness of the holidays, I hope you find time to remember and affirm what matters most in your lives. May the season give you space for quiet, for rest, and for the joy and beauty of family, of friendship, and of love.

Have a Blessed Holiday.

Rev. Tim

Merry Christmas

RELIGIOUS ED NEWS

Greetings, church family and friends!

Before I begin, I want to first thank everyone for attending the programming that we have had for family and youth this last month. It has wonderful to see you, your children, and youth for the RE Family Potluck and the Pajama Jam in November. We’ve also loved seeing your young ones during Time for All Ages in the sanctuary and in RE classrooms each week! As I recently told some of our youth group members, we can’t do great things without great people to do those great things for (and with)! Seeing you all on Sundays and in classes fills me with tremendous joy and, I hope, warms your hearts as well.

I would like to offer a reminder on behalf of the kindergarten through 5th grade teachers as well for parents to please send your children to Sunday classes with outerwear during these colder months! We are nature lovers and enjoy taking our students out onto our church grounds for brief periods when we can, but cannot if students aren’t prepared to be outdoors. Please be sure that your children take a coat with them into class so that they can go out comfortably for short nature activities with their teachers during Sunday morning class time. The children really love this as well and we want to make sure they are able to enjoy the fresh air safely whenever we step outside!

With winter around the corner along with our beautiful holiday celebrations, I’d like to update you on our upcoming RE events as well. This December will bring with it exciting events such as a special Sound Spa/Self Care Sunday for the 6th-12th grade youth on December 8th (in the HS room), the Holiday music service for all ages on December 15th, a Holiday Hike through the holidays of the world, hosted by the COYA youth on December 21st from 1p to 4p, and Winter Solstice later that evening!

We will also be hosting a one-room schoolhouse style Children’s RE program for preschool through high school in the fellowship hall on December 22nd during service, and the pop-up play, Christmas pageant on Christmas Eve!

As always, please feel free to reach out to me with any questions about any of our upcoming events @ dre.uuakron@gmail.com. I am so excited to celebrate and fellowship together with all of you this month as we go into winter and look forward to the new year!

Blessed be,
Abby L’Bert, DRE

Hermitage of the Heart
A Contemplative Worship Experience

Have recent events left your heart feeling heavy or your spirit burdened? Are you in need of peace and rest in the midst of all the noise and busyness of the holiday season?

Join us on Thursday, December 6th at 7PM in the sanctuary for “Hermitage of the Heart,” a contemplative worship experience featuring music and singing, silence and meditation, candlelight and darkness.

In this time of uncertainty and the rush to get things done, give yourself the gift quiet, of rest, and of peace.

On November 15 and 16 we welcomed guest speaker and facilitator Dr. David Campt. Dr. Campt is the author of the White Ally Toolkit and former advisory board member for President Bill Clinton’s Initiative on Race. His unique approach to handling difficult conversations has provided opportunities for folks to navigate the current unprecedented polarization of ideology without compromising values.

Friday evening was a talk, open to the public and an in-depth workshop was held Saturday. We had folks attending not just from our church, but from Wooster, Pittsburgh, Toledo and North Olmsted churches. We even had an avid Trump supporter (she outed herself) who welcomed the process!

We learned a lot and are excited to share this compassionate way of having difficult conversations. Plans are in the pipeline for a class offering in the new year. We know some of our congregational friends and family, who are leery or just plain tired of these conversations, are feeling like they are not being heard. We don't want to let that go unacknowledged. So in the weeks prior to any class that is scheduled, we will host listening sessions for anyone who would like to participate. More on all of this soon!

Our next RJTF meeting will be January 19 following worship. Come join us!

Please remember that all Pledges/donations must be in by December 27th to be counted on your 2019 tax statement.

Our UUWA is always pleased to be able to support church endeavors. This fall the membership voted to donate a solar panel to our Greener and Safer capital campaign. All 44 panels have been installed, the switch has been flipped and the UUCA is getting energy from the sun!

UUWA is pleased to be involved in a program co-ordinated by Tiffany Stacy for the immigrant teens in Akron Public Schools. To ensure they have warm outerwear for these cold, winter days we are asking for your help in donating thick, warm hoodies in various sizes. Also needed are donations of underwear in various sizes. There is a box located in the coat area in the front entrance of the church labeled for Immigrant Teen clothing donations. Please give generously.

UUWA Meeting December 20, 2019
After a short business meeting at 10:30 AM we will again be assembling gifts for our December Community Meal guests. We need donations of men’s and women’s long, warm, winter socks as well as toothbrushes and toothpaste. Please drop off your donations in the box in the coat area in the front entrance of the church.

Our meal will be a holiday potluck.

The UU Women’s Association would like to invite all UU’s to join our organization. This is is not a sexist organization. We accept all. You may be an active participant or simply a participant who supports us with your dues and with an occasional Fair Trade purchase. It is a best kept secret that we provided $800 to purchase a solar panel for the church. Among other things we provide monetary support for are: immigration, women’s rights, holiday gifts for Community Meal guests, Freedom House, Family promise, Hunger Walk, and UUWF(Unitarian Universalist Women’s Federation Equity and Justice Grants Program). You can join this important group of our church by seeing Dottie Clark, our Membership Chairperson or Carol Thombs. They will have membership forms and will be happy to accept your $10 dues. Dottie can be easily found at the Fair Trade Table on the first Sunday of the month.

Stewardship of the Earth - Leaf Update
Little changes in your individual carbon footprint can add up to making a big difference!

At our environmental service last spring, we asked people to write a commitment on a sticky-note leaf and then to place that leaf on a painting of a tree. We’re checking in with folks to see if they have followed through.

A member responded that they committed to moving toward a no-mow lawn. And they’ve done a lot to make that happen in their front yard. They have widened the flower borders; replaced the grass closer to the house with low growth bushes and perennials; planted more ground cover; and added a couple of paths. Sounds beautiful as well as more environmentally friendly!

Someone else shared that they have had new windows installed in their basement. They are using cloth napkins rather than paper. And they are paying on their pledge to support the church’s solar panel and windows project.

Another member talked about the work they’ve done on an addition to their home. They have used 100% LED lighting for all of the lighting needs. About half of the 30 or so light fixtures were direct mount ceiling lights that provide a lot of light for little energy use. Other fixtures were conventional wall mounts fitted with LED bulbs. Today you can select LED bulbs and fixtures with the desired color to match any application. Over the lifetime of the LED bulbs and fixtures they will save a considerable amount of electrical energy compared to using incandescent bulbs. Very useful information!

Thanks to those of you who have gotten back to me. I welcome others to let me know what you have done. Thanks.

Living in a Covenant Community
Over the past couple of months, there has been an article about “Why we have a Covenant” https://gallery.mailchimp.com/d158e6858ea565c4cef20e2a/files/1500ced2-06ee-4ae5-8198-925c4c00d2c/Reporter_October_2019.pdf and “What is a Covenant” https://gallery.mailchimp.com/d158e6858ea565c4cef20e2a/files/e91d38e05034-4531-98b9-1bde174e25fe/Reporter_November_2019.01.pdf and this month, we want to talk a little about what being in a Covenant Community means and how to “live by the Covenant”

It’s not simply memorizing what the Covenant is, but more understanding the direction we want our community to go in and following our own paths towards that ideal. It’s a way for us to interact with people in our community, but as we build the optimum community of our collective selves, we strive to do so in all of our interactions. The covenant is something you take with you, learn from, and nurture both in our sanctuary and in our homes. And it’s something to act on and follow even when we’re not working with others in our community.

Remember, if you have any questions about the Covenant or how any action might be going against it, ask any of the UU church officials or one of the Right Relations team members.
