Minister's Musings...

What a year 2019 was at the UU Church of Akron. We shared in some very meaningful worship services, installed new windows and solar panels, celebrated as Edwin and Antonio were able to safely leave sanctuary, and bid farewell to Rich Roberts and Bob Carlyon, who served our congregation for 23 and 20 years respectively. I cannot thank Rich and Bob enough for their ministry and we wish them all the best in their retirement.

As eventful as the previous year has been, I have no doubt that 2020 will be another fabulous year at the UU Church of Akron. We are very pleased to welcome Keyboard Artist, Brian Laakso, as our Acting Director of Music. Brian will continue to share his considerable gifts as a Keyboard Artist and bring his creative vision to our music program.

In addition to the music program, Acting DRE, Abby L’Bert, will continue to guide our outstanding religious education program for children and youth. I have been so pleased to see so many new families with young children and I know that Abby’s leadership and Carolyn Stevens’ outstanding work as our RE Assistant have played a key role in bringing those families in and helping them feel welcome.

I am also very excited about the continued growth of our ministries as well as new opportunities we will be pursuing. For example, we will be working towards recertification of our Welcoming Congregation ministry, extending our outreach to local immigrants, and offering classes and other programs about racial justice. We will also be making a significant push to make the church more accessible by joining a denominational program called AIM (Accessibility and Inclusivity Ministry). We will hold a service about AIM on January 12 so please join us.

As we begin a new year together, I hope your lives are blessed with good health, with friendship, and with great, great love. We are so grateful that you have chosen to share your precious lives with this church community and we look forward to continuing the journey.

Happy New Year everyone! With 2020 officially here, I’d like to look back on some of the fun we had in December as well as look ahead to some of the great things we have cooking for the RE program this spring.

We wrapped up last month with some really wonderful holiday programming such as the COYA Holiday Hike, RE All Children and youth programming in Hanna Hall on December 22nd, and the Instant Christmas Pageant on Christmas Eve!

We hope to continue on with our fun, family-friendly activities in 2020 and plan to invite all who would like to join us on a UU Family sledding day at the Akron Metroparks! Stay tuned for the date as we’d like to visit when we have plenty of snow to enjoy:).

The COYA youth would also like to invite families on a Holiday Hike Take 2 this month so that more families have an opportunity to join the youth in their journey of learning and exploration of various cultural celebrations around our world. The Holiday Hike Take 2 will take place during coffee hour on January 12th. Be sure to stop by to check it out!

Later this Spring, our youth will also be planning their annual youth service where they take the reigns of service and share their wonderful gifts and perspectives. I love this service so very much and am looking forward to working with our youth on this fantastic event.

Here’s to a wonderful 2020!

Blessed be,
Abby L’Bert, DRE

OM Winter YAC Meeting

We are planning a 2 day YAC meeting at SouthWest UU Church in North Royalton, OH January 10-12. We need Youth and supporting adults to attend this meeting if there are to be any OM CONs scheduled in the future.

Save the Dates: At the YAC meeting we will be planning CONs for February 21-23 (location TBA) and April 3-5 (East Shore).

Here’s more info about OM YAC meetings: Along with celebrating our shared spiritual connections and journeys, we’ll be holding elections for leadership, reviewing our by-laws, previewing our new CER Youth Safety Guidelines, and planning future CONS. YAC meetings are a great way to connect and learn more about our youth-adult community and programming. Input is needed from many people. You do not have to be a YAC member to register to attend. In order to become a member of YAC you must attend two of these planning meetings. You are able to vote at your first YAC meeting. [People should vote at their discretion, based on how knowledgeable they feel about the issue]. You can become a YAC member and run for leadership positions at your second YAC meeting.

Capacity for this event is 40 youth. If the form is closed and we are not yet at the deadline, please contact the co-chair to be placed on the waiting list. The required youth to adult ratio is 7:1.

Fee: $25.00 first youth family member, $20.00 second youth family member, $15.00 third youth family member.

If this is your first conference or meeting, please read the Behavioral Expectations which describes our expectations of youth and adults attending youth events in the region and the CER Youth Event Procedures and Requirements. You will be asked about these documents in the registration process.

Register as a Youth: https://uua.wufoo.com/forms/z1384ir30yr7f1w/

Registration for youth closes January 3. If the form states it is no longer accepting submissions then the event is full and please contact the registrar to be placed on the wait list.

Register as an adult sponsor: https://uua.wufoo.com/forms/z1emghgt08z8xdn/
The President’s Corner

Many thanks to Pam Garn Nunn for planning such a meaningful and helpful service (“Long Live Life!”) on December 29th. Pam and Susan Wynn led our ritual for the new year as we (safely) burned slips of paper with mistakes and regrets listed for 2019 while writing down and preserving aspirations for 2020. The lighting of the Menorah, done so beautifully by Carolyn and Allayna Stevens, provided a renewed sense of hope that was only deepened when Pam shared her personal reflection.

As she noted, Pam was inspired in creating the service by the words of Howard Thurman. I’ll repeat the line that is still on my mind: “We turn our faces toward the year being born with a riding hope that will carry us into the days ahead with courage and with confidence.”

In 2019, we experienced significant changes within our church. Much of what happened during the last year was exciting and positive. I can’t think of a better example than the celebration of our sanctuary journey with Edwin and Antonio held just a few weeks ago. The installation of our new windows and solar panels is a close second. We also offered thanks and showed our appreciation for the many years of wonderful and loving service given by Rich Roberts and Bob Carlyon.

These things happened while the regular work of the church—such as conducting worship, organizing social justice programs, preparing the community meal, teaching Sunday School, completing the stewardship campaign, managing communication, maintaining our building and grounds, managing our finances, and so much more—was handled with the utmost care and concern for the well being of our beloved community. To Rev. Tim and our marveloust staff, I want to offer the thanks of the Board for your hard work and dedication. To the many lay leaders and members of our congregation who make these activities happen: thank you, thank you, and thank you! You are the true source of the “courage and confidence” that I hope the UUCA will continue to feel in 2020.

The Board will soon hold its annual retreat. Our emphasis will be on navigating change in a way that is inclusive, loving, and true to our UU principles. While change can be exciting and inspiring, it can also be disorienting or even disappointing. One of our goals for the new year will be to create as many opportunities as possible for members of the congregation to share their ideas, hopes, dreams, plans, and passions about the future direction of the UUCA. I don’t want anyone to feel silenced or to leave us because they don’t feel heard. I passionately believe that we can grow together, with the diverse beliefs, outlooks, and life experiences present right now in our congregation included in the conversation.

In the spirit of Pam’s service, let me close by saying that I’d like to apologize to anyone who didn’t feel heard by the Board, didn’t get a prompt or helpful reply to a question or concern, or who felt disrespected. I am proud of what we accomplished, but I also know that we can do always do better. I want to thank the members of the Board for their dedicated service: Hallie Bowie, Steve Wagner, Becky Dempster, Scott Piepho, Sarah Culver, Cir L’Bert Jr., Dan Marksz, and Kyle Josza. Lastly, let me offer a quick shout out to a trio of former Board presidents who always give me sage advice and encouragement: Charlie Nelson, David Wynn, and (of course) Jen Welsh.

Happy New Year! ~ Rob Sturr, Board President

“The Listening Heart”
Rev. Tim Temerson
Religion and spirituality are often understood in terms of belief in a creed or in the literal truth of a sacred text. Today’s service will focus on a very different approach to religion and spirituality, an approach rooted in listening, humility, and openness to the wisdom that lives in all.

January 12, 2020
The Journey to Accessibility
Rev. Tim & The UUCA AIM Team
Unitarian Universalism affirms the inherent worth and dignity of every person. Yet we live in a world that excludes based on a wide range of (dis)abilities. The same is true in our congregations, including the UU Church of Akron. Today’s service will explore those barriers and introduce a new program (AIM or Accessibility and Inclusivity Ministry) that will help our congregation make the journey to accessibility and inclusivity.

January 19, 2020
“Two Banners and a Church: MLK Sunday”
Rev. Tim & the Racial Justice Task Force
Three years ago, the UU Church of Akron dedicated two Black Lives Matter banners. As we mark that important moment and celebrate the life and ministry of Dr. King, today’s service will focus on the work we still need to do in recognizing and affirming that, as one of our banners says so well, “All Lives Won’t Matter Until Black Lives Matter.” Today’s service will include the musical talents of the UU Band.

Rev. Joan Van Becelaere
The word “shalom” means more than “peace.” It also encompasses wholeness and right relations. As UUs, we are committed to building a society of shalom/wholeness, which we name “Beloved Community.” But as evidenced by every newscast and paper we see, we are far from that Beloved Community we dream about. We are witness to the growing division and tribalism at work in our society. There is a hole in our wholeness that we need to address, both personally and in society, before we can hope to build Beloved Community. Rev. Joan served as the District Executive of the Ohio Meadville District for 11 years and is now the Executive Director of UU Justice Ohio.

Dismantling Racism One Conversation at a Time
A six week class offered February 18-March 24
The work of antiracism and anti-oppression is spiritual work. Our Unitarian Universalist Principles call us to affirm:

· The inherent worth and dignity of each person
· Justice, equity, and compassion in human relations
· The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all

Yet we live in a world in which oppressive structures prevent us from living out these Principles.

In 1997 a report developed over five years by the UUA Racial and Cultural Diversity Task Force entitled “Journey Towards Wholeness—The Next Step: From Racial and Cultural Diversity to Anti-Oppression and Anti-Racist Multiculturalism” led to an almost unanimous vote by the 3,000 General Assembly delegates in Phoenix, AZ that year, on a “Resolution Toward an Anti-Racist Unitarian Universalist Association” to carry forward the vision outlined in the report. (A copy of this resolution can be found on our website.)

This resolution emphasizes the importance of moving toward anti-racist multiculturalism where we deal with the issues of white power and privilege at the various levels of our religious institution. It also calls on us as Unitarian Universalists to make a commitment to doing this work in our congregations.

Although that resolution was passed over 20 years ago, only recently with the forming of Blacks Lives UU and their persistent call for UU’s to do this work, have we truly seen the beginnings of movement toward the goals of this resolution.

White UU’s, the ball is in our court. As we walk into a new decade, one that will begin with an election that will define the soul of our country, we need to step up our spiritual work on dismantling racism.

In November 2019 the Racial Justice Task Force brought in Dr. David Campt for a talk and workshop based on his White Ally Tool Kit. His unique approach to handling difficult conversations provided opportunities for folks to navigate the current unprecedented polarization of ideology without compromising values. Over 30 people attended that November workshop and we are ready to engage our greater congregation in a process that will literally change the conversation.

The Racial Justice Task Force will present a 6-week class based on the materials from Campt’s workshop. This is an opportunity to not only explore our own biases and blind spots, but an opportunity to learn how to hold conversations with those who have yet to start their exploration.

Dismantling Racism One Conversation at a Time will be held Tuesday evening from 7-8:30 pm starting February 18 and running through March 24. The class requires a commitment to attend all six sessions as the work is cumulative. There is no class fee, however it does require the purchase of the workbook.

Sign up will be available at coffee hour starting January 26. If you want to know more or have questions or concerns, several workshop participants will be at the registration table and will be happy to talk with you.
Thank you to all who have helped our immigrant families. There is always need for volunteers, for numerous tasks with our families. The need is great. Please click here to read an insightful article from Cathie Finn who is very active, along with others in this ministry.

► Social Justice Traveling Missions Group
We are working on plan this year’s trip to the Smithsonian’s African American Museum, All Souls UU Church and the US Holocaust Museum in Washington DC. All are welcome. See Danene and Wayne Bender, Alease Vaughn or Bill or Carol Thombs for more info.

► NONFICTION BOOK GROUP
The UU Non-Fiction Book Group will next meet on Wednesday, January 8, 2020 (the second Wednesday), at 7 PM at the church. We will be discussing "The Years that Matter Most: How College Makes or Breaks Us" by Paul Tough. It tells the story of student trying to find their way, with hope, joy and frustration, through the application process and into college. It reveals how the landscape of higher education has shifted recently and exposes the hidden truths of how the system works and for whom it works.

► WOMEN’S BOOK GROUP
Since the first Wednesday is on New Year’s Day, we will meet on the second Wednesday. In January, we will be reading Sula by Toni Morrison. The Story Teller’s Secret by Sejal Badari will Be our choice for February. Meetings begin at 7 p.m. All women are welcome. For questions, call Jan Schrader at 330 650 0036 or Email janzst@yahoo.com

► RACIAL JUSTICE TASK FORCE
Racial Justice Task Force meeting Sunday, January 19, noon following service.

► COMMUNITY MEAL
All hands on deck for our monthly Community Meal on Saturday, January 25th at noon.

The UUWA is a small but mighty group of women who meet at 10:30 a.m., on the third Friday of every month. We are always looking for new members. This year we have donated new table linens to the church, landscaping, and contributed towards the solar panels. We are working with North High School and Project Rise. The UUWA also volunteers for coffee hour once a month and we help with the monthly Community Meal. Just this past month we filled 115 pairs of socks with toiletries and goodies for our meal guests. We also host a Fair Trade table the first Sunday of the month during coffee hour. We would love to see you January 17, 2020 at 10:30!

January is a time for reflecting on the past year and making plans and resolutions for the year to come. Lynn Hawkins will continue the theme of self-care by sharing interesting information and engaging questions about how to tackle 2020 in a positive way.

We will examine the lives of other intelligent and social animal species to find out what we can learn from them that will help us be happier, healthier and to be more supportive of one another. Join us Friday, January 17th for an enlightening program to launch the new year in a positive direction. Fun and laughter promised!

Business meeting at 10:30 a.m. followed by the program and brown bag lunch.
